Newberg on Class Action § 11:41(4th ed. 2006)

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS & AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

On March 1, 2017, the Court granted Plaintiff John Smith's ("Smith" or "Plaintiff") unopposed motion for preliminary approval of class action settlement with Defendant A-Check America Inc. d/b/a A-Check Global ("A-Check" or "Defendant"). (ECF No. 59.) Notice has been sent out to 2,595 Settlement Class Members, and the reaction has been overwhelmingly positive. (Declaration of Corinne Lefler re: Notice Procedures ("Lefler Decl.") ¶ 12.) Thus far zero have opted out and zero have objected. Given the favorable response of the Class and the Settlement's reasonableness, fairness, and adequacy, the Court should grant Final Approval.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Lawsuit

The history of this class action litigation under the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") is recounted in detail in Plaintiff's preliminary approval papers, and will be briefly summarized here. See Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Motion for Preliminary Approval of the Proposed Settlement [Unopposed] (ECF No. 56). Plaintiff alleged that the Defendant violated the FCRA by producing a background report that included information relating to non-convictions that predated the report by more than seven years. (First Am. Compl., ECF No. 15.) Defendant filed a motion to dismiss the First Amended Complaint, which the Court denied. (ECF Nos. 28, 35.)

The Parties then engaged in extensive discovery. Both Parties produced hundreds of pages of documents, which Class Counsel reviewed, and Plaintiff reviewed significant discovery obtained through a third-party subpoena directed at an industry organization. (ECF No. 56 at 2.) Additionally, Plaintiff deposed Defendant's Rule 30(b)(6) designee. (Id.) In advance of mediation,

1 the Parties engaged in numerous conference calls, some of which included
2 experts, to determine how best to extract information from Defendant's
3 electronic systems to identify members of the classes. (Id.)

4 The Parties attended a full-day mediation with Joan Kessler. At the 5 conclusion of that mediation, the Parties agreed to a settlement in principle and 6 executed a terms sheet. After exchanging numerous drafts, the Parties
7 executed a formal Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement, ECF No.
8 56-2.)

9 B. Key Settlement Terms

10 The Settlement Agreement provides for the establishment of a $400,000
11 common fund to compensate the Settlement Class: persons having been the 12 subject of a background report prepared by Defendant and whose background
13 report contained one or more items of information which were non-convictions
14 predating the report by more than seven years. (Settlement Agreement, ECF 15 No. 56-2 ¶ 27.)

16 The Net Settlement Fund shall be distributed to Settlement Class 17 Members such that individuals with any outdated criminal charges on their 18 reports shall receive a payment four times greater than those with only 19 outdated traffic violations on their reports. (Id. ¶ 35.) If the requested amounts
20 are granted for attorneys' fees, administrative expenses, and a Class 21 Representative incentive award, Defendant shall issue payment of 22 approximately $114 for each member of the Settlement Class having outdated
23 criminal charges on their reports and $28 for each member having outdated
24 traffic violations on their reports. (Lefler Decl. ¶ 17.) Plaintiff has filed a 25 motion for attorneys' fees and costs of one-third of the settlement fund, and a 26 $3,500 incentive award for Plaintiff John Smith. (ECF No. 60.) Defendant 27 does not oppose that motion. No Class Members have objected to the 28

1 requested fees, costs, and incentive award.¹

2 The Settlement Agreement also provides for meaningful prospective
3 relief. First, Defendant has implemented an automated process to screen out
4 obsolete information, including outdated dismissed charges. (Settlement
5 Agreement, ECF No. 56-2 ¶ 30, Ex. A.) Second, Defendant has also 6 implemented procedures to ensure that criminal charges which are dismissed
7 due to amendment prior to conviction are no longer reported after seven years.
8 (Id. ¶ 31, Ex. A.) Third, Defendant agrees to provide Class Members who 9 request a copy of their background report with a copy, free of charge. (Id.
10 ¶ 32, Ex. A.)

11 III. PRELIMINARY SETTLEMENT APPROVAL

12 On March 1, 2017, the Court preliminarily approved the Settlement and 13 certified the Settlement Class for settlement purposes. (ECF No. 59.)

14 IV. CLASS NOTICE

15 On April 7, 2017, Postcard Notices of the proposed Settlement were 16 mailed to the 2,668 members of the Settlement Class. (Lefler Decl. ¶ 7.) After 17 address tracing and remailings, the Settlement Administrator was able to 18 successfully deliver notices to 2,595 of the Class Members, or 97%. (Id. ¶ 12.)
19 The Settlement Administrator maintained a publicly available website that 20 posted information related to the case and the Settlement, including the 21 Settlement Agreement, Notice, Claim Form, Plaintiff's motion for attorneys'
22 fees, costs, and incentive award, and other case-related documents. (Id. ¶ 13.)

23 V. CLASS MEMBER REACTION

24 The notice period closed on May 22, 2017. As of the date of this filing, 25

26 ¹ The Claims Administrator also provided notice to the appropriate state
27 and federal officials pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28
28 U.S.C. § 1715. (Lefler Decl. ¶¶ 2-5.)

1 there have been no opt-outs or objections to the Settlement. (Id. ¶¶ 15, 16.)

2 VI. RELIEF TO BE PROVIDED AFTER THE SETTLEMENT BECOMES
 3 EFFECTIVE

4 If the Settlement is granted final approval, Defendant will establish a
 5 $400,000 settlement fund within five (5) business days of the Final Approval
 6 Order. (Settlement Agreement, ECF No. 56-2 ¶ 54.) If the Court awards the 7 requested attorneys’ fees, costs, and incentive award, the Settlement
 8 Administrator shall send checks of approximately $114 to each member of the 9 Settlement Class having outdated criminal charges on their reports and $28 to 10 each member of the Settlement Class having outdated traffic violations on their 11 reports within twenty (20) days of the entry of the Final Approval Order. (Id.
 12 ¶ 55; Lefler Decl. ¶ 17.)

13 ARGUMENT

14 There is a “strong judicial policy that favors settlements, particularly 15 where complex class action litigation is concerned.” In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 16 516 F.3d 1095, 1101 (9th Cir. 2008). Courts may approve proposed class
 17 action settlements if they are found to be “fair, adequate, and reasonable.”
 18 Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1292 (9th Cir. 1991). The 19 court begins its analysis with an “initial presumption of fairness when a 20 proposed class settlement, which was negotiated at arm’s length by counsel for 21 the class, is presented for court approval.” Newberg on Class Actions § 11:41
 22 (4th ed. 2006); accord, Dickerson v. Cable Commc’ns, Inc., No. 12-cv-12, 23 2013 WL 6178460, at *2 (D. Or. Nov. 25, 2013) (“Courts within the Ninth 24 Circuit ‘put a good deal of stock in the product of an arms[]length, non-25 collusive, negotiated resolution.’”) (quoting Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp., 26 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009)).

27 The Ninth Circuit has stated that courts should consider several factors

1 as part of the fairness determination, including: (1) the strength of the 2 plaintiff's case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity and duration of further 3 litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status through trial; (4) the 4 amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the 5 stage of proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence 6 of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the class members to the 7 proposed settlement. Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir.
 8 1998).

9 For the reasons set forth below, the Court should: (1) order final
 10 approval of the Parties' Settlement; (2) dismiss Plaintiff's and the Settlement
 11 Class's claims against Defendant with prejudice; (3) dismiss the opt-outs'
 12 claims against Defendant without prejudice; (4) approve Class Counsel's
 13 requests for attorneys' fees and costs and the Named Plaintiff incentive award;
 14 and (5) approve the Settlement payments for distribution to the Settlement
 15 Classes.

16 I. THE RELIEF PROVIDED BY THE SETTLEMENT IS SIGNIFICANT

17 The Settlement not only offers Settlement Class Members monetary
 18 relief that is comparable or exceeds recoveries approved in similar cases, it 19 also provides meaningful non-monetary relief in the form of practice changes 20 that directly address the claims at issue here.

21 With respect to monetary benefits, Plaintiff sought statutory damages 22 under the FCRA, which provides for damages of between $100 and $1,000 for 23 each willful violation. (15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a)(1).) Due to the difficulties
 24 inherent in establishing that violations were willful, it is common for FCRA
 25 class actions to settle for less than $100 per class member. See, e.g., In re Toys
 26 R Us-Delaware, Inc.—Fair & Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA)
 27 Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453-4 (C.D. Cal. 2014) ("A $5 or $30 award, therefore,

1 represents 5% to 30% of the recovery that might have been obtained. This is 2 not a de minimis amount. Given the likelihood that plaintiff would have been 3 unable to prove actual damages and the risk that they would have been unable 4 to prove willfulness and recover any damages at all, the court finds that the 5 amount of the settlement weighs in favor of approval.”). The recovery here of 6 approximately $114 to each member of the Settlement Class having outdated
7 criminal charges on their reports and $28 to each member of the Settlement
8 Class having outdated traffic violations on their reports, supports the fairness
9 of the Settlement.

10 The individual recovery provided also compares favorably to other 11 settlements in similar cases. See, e.g., Barel v. Bank of Am., No. 06-cv-2372, 12 ECF No. 60, Final Approval Order (E.D. Pa. Jan. 16, 2009) (granting final 13 approval to claims-made settlement for 27,350 class members where class
14 members who filed a claim form receive four months of credit monitoring 15 services); Barton v. Specialized Loan Servicing, LLC, No.13-cv-2366, ECF 16 No. 52, Stipulation of Settlement (D. Minn. Nov. 17, 2014) (settling for $14.28 17 per impermissible credit inquiry); Holman v. Experian Info. Solutions, No.11-
18 cv-180, ECF 243-1, Settlement Agreement (N.D. Cal. Mar. 27, 2014)
19 (settlement for class members to receive $375 on claims-made basis, less than 20 10% of class members ultimately made claims); King v. United SA Fed. Credit
21 Union, No.09-cv-937, ECF No. 31, Final Approval Order (W.D. Tex. Oct. 8, 22 2010) (awarding class members $100 and a free credit score on a claims-made
23 basis); Parthiban v. GMAC Mortg. Corp., No.05-cv-768, ECF No. 103-2, 24 Settlement Agreement (C.D. Cal. Jan. 10, 2008) (providing settlement class 25 members with 12 months’ credit monitoring on a claims-made basis); Phillips
26 v. Accredited Home Lenders Holding Co., No.06-cv-57, ECF No. 51, Final 27 Approval Order (C.D. Cal. July 17, 2008) (awarding $10 per class member on 28

1 a claims-made basis); Sleezer v. Chase Bank USA, N.A., No.07-cv-961, ECF
 2 No. 53-1, Settlement Agreement (W.D. Tex. Jan. 12, 2009) (providing identity 3 protection services worth $71.94 per class member on a claims-made basis);
 4 Yeagley v. Wells Fargo, No.05-cv-3403, ECF No. 142, Final Approval Order
 5 (N.D. Cal. July 23, 2007) (approving settlement that provided for two credit 6 reports and a $50 rebate on first mortgage loan from defendant).

7 Moreover, the non-monetary relief addresses the claims in this case, for 8 the Settlement Class Members as well as for future subjects of background 9 checks. The practice changes being implemented by Defendant will reduce 10 the reporting of outdated adverse information for future job applicants. Given 11 that there is disagreement about injunctive relief being available to Plaintiff
 12 under the FCRA, this benefit is substantial and may not have been achievable
 13 through litigation. See Gauci v. Citi Mortg., No. 11-cv-01387, 2011 WL
 14 3652589, at *3 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 19, 2011) (“District courts in the Ninth Circuit 15 agree that a private party may not obtain injunctive relief under the FCRA.”).

16 II. PLAINTIFF AND THE SETTLEMENT CLASS WOULD HAVE FACED 17 SUBSTANTIAL RISKS IN THE ABSENCE OF A SETTLEMENT

18 The significance of the Settlement is even clearer when considered in 19 light of the risks of continued litigation. Although Plaintiff believes that his 20 claims were strong, considerable obstacles remained between Plaintiff and a 21 favorable judgment. Plaintiff would have to win a contested motion for class 22 certification, survive summary judgment motion practice, and ultimately, 23 prevail at trial. Moreover, Plaintiff faced more definite risks due to 24 Defendant’s defenses to willfulness. The FCRA is not a strict liability statute.
 25 Dalton v. Capital Associated Indus., 257 F.3d 409, 417 (4th Cir. 2001). A 26 FCRA plaintiff can recover only where the defendant has acted negligently or 27 willfully, and where the defendant’s violation was at most negligent, recovery
 28

1 is limited to actual damages. See 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681n(a)(1), 1681o(a)(1).
 2 Because he did not allege any actual damages, in order to recover anything,
 3 Plaintiff would have had to prove not only that Defendant violated the FCRA,
 4 but that it did so willfully. Throughout this Litigation, Defendant has 5 vigorously contested that it willfully violated the FCRA. Plaintiff believes that 6 these arguments could have been overcome in litigation, but also believes they 7 demonstrate that there were serious obstacles to recovery in this case, a fact 8 which weighs in favor of final approval.

9 Further, the Settlement in this case was negotiated in the aftermath of 10 the Supreme Court's decision in Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 136 S. Ct. 1540
 11 (2016). Resolving whether the alleged FCRA violations here give rise to a 12 concrete harm is another hurdle Plaintiff would have faced in continued
 13 litigation. While Plaintiff believes that informational injuries and privacy 14 violations are sufficient to confer Article III standing, see, e.g., id. at 1549, the 15 case law on this point is continuing to develop, and this risk weighs in favor 16 of settlement approval.

17 III. THE STAGE OF THE PROCEEDINGS AND AMOUNT OF DISCOVERY 18 COMPLETED SUPPORTS APPROVAL

19 By the time of Settlement, the Parties had devoted a considerable 20 amount of time to discovery and litigation of this case. Plaintiff had researched
 21 and drafted the original and amended complaints, the Parties had exchanged 22 considerable discovery and detailed mediation submissions, and attended a 23 full-day mediation with an experienced mediator, all before this Settlement
 24 was reached. Consequently, the Parties had a clear understanding of the claims 25 and defenses in this Action and were able to appropriately evaluate their 26 positions prior to Settlement. This weighs in favor of final approval. See In 27 re Charles Schwab Corp. Secs. Litig., No. 08-1510, 2011 WL 1481424, at *5 28

(N.D. Cal. April 19, 2011) (“[T]he class settlements were reached ... when class counsel had completed discovery and had conducted extensive motion practice and were thus well aware of the issues and attendant risks involved in going to trial as well as the adequacy of the amount of the class settlement.”).

IV. THE EXPERIENCE AND VIEWS OF COUNSEL SUPPORT THE SETTLEMENT

The views of experienced counsel are entitled to considerable weight when deciding to approve a settlement. See Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980) (“The fact that experienced counsel involved in the case approved the settlement after hard-fought negotiations is entitled to considerable weight.”). Class Counsel here are experienced and skilled in consumer class actions and support the Settlement as being in the best interests of the Settlement Class. (See ECF No. 56-3). The experience of Class Counsel demonstrates that the Settlement Class was well represented at the bargaining table, and further weighs in favor of approval of the Settlement. See In re Pac. Enters. Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995) (finding that “[p]arties represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a settlement that fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in the litigation”); In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1080 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (finding this factor favored settlement approval where “[e]xperienced counsel on both sides, each with a comprehensive understanding of the strengths and weaknesses of each party’s respective claims and defenses, negotiated this settlement over an extended period of time”).

V. THE REACTION OF THE CLASS MEMBERS SUPPORTS THE SETTLEMENT

Finally, the Settlement Class has reacted well to the Settlement. “It is

1 established that the absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class
 2 action settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of a proposed class
 3 settlement action are favorable to the class members.” Nat’l Rural Telecomms.
 4 Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 529 (C.D. Cal. 2004). There have 5 been no objections and no opt-outs received from the 2,595 Class Members.
 6 In other words, 100% of the Class Members have chosen to participate in the 7 Settlement. The lack of opposition to the Settlement speaks volumes as to its 8 fairness, and consequently, this factor strongly supports the Settlement. See In 9 re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Products Liab. Litig., 227 F.R.D. 553, 564
 10 (W.D. Wash. 2004) (“[T]he Class Members themselves have effectively voted 11 heavily in favor of the Settlement, by not opting out. In fact, 95% of Class 12 Members have chosen to take part in the Settlement.”).

13 CONCLUSION

14 In sum, all of the relevant factors support approval, and this Court
 15 should grant final approval of the Settlement.
